Terms and Conditions

RKA Bride of the Year 2019 is open to all brides married between September 1st 2017 and August 31st 2019. RKA reserves the right to admit brides outside of these dates under special circumstances.

Contestants must have been married in the Manawatu, South Rangitikei, Foxton or Pahiatua areas (the region where Ruahine Kindergartens, Early Learning and Home-Based services operate) and/or have settled within this region since their marriage. RKA reserves the right to admit contestants from outside this area under special circumstances.

The first 45 applications, complying with these terms and conditions, will be accepted providing that the bride's attire is acceptable for public display. RKA reserves the right to reject a contestant's application if these conditions are not met.

The entrance fee is $60 per contestant. Applications will not be considered until this fee has been paid in full.

All contestants undertake to sell at least ten show tickets.

All information and photographs provided in support of this application will be used for judging purposes and may be displayed on the night of the show in a PowerPoint

Any photographs provided in support of this application may be used to promote this or future RKA Bride of the Year shows, in print or social media

A copy of your marriage certificate must be supplied with your application, this will be verified and held until the end of this competition, then destroyed.

A full-length AND head-and-shoulders photograph of the bride; and a photo of the bride and partner; and a favourite photo of your wedding day must be supplied as high-resolution, electronic images with your application.

All contestants are required to attend a pre-event evening and a rehearsal at the Regent Theatre, Palmerston North in advance of the show – details to follow.

An independent judging panel will select the winner. The judges' decision is final and no further discussion or correspondence will be entered into.

RKA shall not be liable under any circumstances for loss or damage sustained by the contestant or the contestant's possessions during the RKA Bride of the Year rehearsal or event.

Only fully completed entry forms, accompanied by required entry fees and photographs submitted before August 31st 2019 will be considered.

RKA reserves the right to close off entries prior to August 31st 2019 should the maximum number of 45 entries be reached before that date.

RKA reserves the right to accept late entries should space in the contest be available, but this may result in the bride's exclusion from some promotional collateral.
